HARLEM QUARTET

Thursday, April 2, 8pm

An audience favorite, Harlem Quartet returns to The Kreeger Museum for the third time. The New York-based quartet, currently serving a three-year residency at London's Royal College of Music, has been praised for its "panache" by The New York Times and hailed in the Cincinnati Enquirer for "bringing a new attitude to classical music, one that is fresh, bracing and intelligent." The quartet's mission is to advance diversity in classical music, engaging young and new audiences through the discovery and presentation of varied repertoire that includes works by minority composers.

Tickets: $40 | Members: $30

Doors open at 6:30pm | Wine & Cheese at 7pm

NINTH STREET WOMEN

Thursday, April 23, 7pm

Acclaimed author Mary Gabriel speaks about her book, Ninth Street Women: Lee Krasner, Elaine de Kooning, Grace Hartigan, Joan Mitchell, and Helen Frankenthaler: Five Painters and the Movement That Changed Modern Art. The book tells the story of five women artists who transformed the New York art world in the middle of the twentieth century. Gabriel's writing brings to life their passionate struggle to challenge artistic and social traditions, and in doing so tells a crucial chapter in the history of American art.
